Translation for Page 12 of 76

On the base of equity, free will and consensus, Party A and Party B make this contract concerning Party B's buying of Party B's commercial housing pre-selling of Spreadtrum Center.

First, Party A has acquired the land-use right of land No. 1481700150005051 in Pudong New District through transfer of land-use right, and has legally registered the land-use right to get the housing property ownership certificate whose number is Pu 2005083405, with an area of 21800.00 for scientific research and commercial use.

Party A has been approved to invest and build commercial housing Spreadtrum Center (temporary name/current name) whose main body building is steel and concrete structure with 10 overground floors and 1 underground floor.

The above mentioned commercial housing has met pre-selling conditions stipulated in Methods on Shanghai Real Estate Transfer. The Shanghai Pudong New District Construction Bureau has approved its pre-selling (Pre-selling permission No. Pudong New District Housing (2006) Yu Zi 0000036).

Second, Party B buys the whole building in floor 1, #1, Spreadtrum Center, #2288, Zuzhongzhi Lu from Party A (hereinafter referred to as "the housing"). The government approves the housing for office use.

According to Party A's temporary measurement, the housing's area is 12765.42 m<sup>2</sup>, of which inner building area is 12379.46 m<sup>2</sup>, public area is 385.96 m<sup>2</sup> and underground area 0 m<sup>2</sup>(price details in appendix). The housing is a 42 meters high construction.

The construction design and layout are included in Contract Appendix 2. The housing's construction structure, decoration and facility standards are included in Contract Appendix 3. Relevant descriptions of the housing (mortgage and rental) are included in Contract Appendix 4, neighboring and district layout are included in Contract Appendix 6, the housing's Preliminary Property Management Service Contract, Usage Convention and relevant Letter of Commitment are included in Contract Appendix 5.

Translation for Page 13 of 76

Third, Party B buys the housing with the price of ____ RMB (BLOCK LETTERS: _____) for each square meter of housing construction area (total housing decoration price not included).

According to Party A's temporary measurement, Party B buys the housing with a temporary total price of (total housing decoration price not included) ____ RMB (BLOCK LETTERS: _____).

The housing's total decoration price is RMB _____.
BLOCK LETTERS: _____.

Fourth, Party B buys the housing with a total price (including decoration and facility described in Appendix 3) covering the housing and corresponding proportion of land-use right. The total price set in this contract should not be changed unless the housing's temporary construction area does not match its actual area.

Fifth, when the housing is turned over, the housing's construction area should be confirmed by a surveying and mapping institute recognized by the Shanghai Housing Land Resource Bureau. If Party A's temporary measurement does not match the actual area, unless otherwise stipulated by laws and regulations, it should be handled as follow:

1. refund for any overpayment or a supplemental payment for any deficiency according to the housing's price for each square meter of construction area;
2. Party A agrees that in case of deficiency over +3.00% (including 3.00%) between temporary area and actual area, Party B will not be charged for the exceeding area; Party A agrees that in case of deficiency over -3.00% (including 3.00%) between temporary area and actual area, Party B has the right to cancel the contract unilaterally. When carrying Party A's right to cancel the contract, Party B should cancel the contract when or before the two parties sign the Housing Transfer Letter, or Party B will be considered to give up the right.

Translation for Page 14 of 76

Sixth, upon the signing of this contract, the housing's construction project has reached the phase of top out. Party B should transmit enough payment into Party A's pre-selling monitored accounts in a timely manner according to the dates agreed in the contract (pre-selling monitoring institution: Jinqiao Branch of Shanghai Pudong Development Bank, account name: Shanghai Spreadtrum Real Estate Development Co., Ltd., account number: 97360155300000076). Pre-selling payment use should be monitored according to government regulations.

Party B's means of payment and payment period should be clearly defined by the two parties in Appendix 1.

Seventh, if Party B fails to pay according to time agreed in the contract, Party B should pay a penalty due to breach of contract by 4.00/10,000 of the unpaid amount for each day. The penalty is calculated from the day after the agreed payment date to the date of actual payment. Once the delay exceeds 60 days, Party A has the right to call Party B to account according to Plan 1:

Plan 1, Party A is entitled to cancel the contract unilaterally and Party B should bear the responsibility to compensate. Compensation amount will be 3.00% of the total housing price. Party A is entitled to deduct the compensation from Party B's payment. The rest of the housing payment should be returned to Party B. If Party B's payment is not enough for compensation, Party A is entitled to recourse.

Party A should inform Party B in written manner when canceling the contract.

Plan 2,

Eighth, once the contract is signed, Party A should not make unauthorized changes to the housing's construction design (see Appendix 2). Necessary changes should have Party B's agreement and be reported to planning and management authority for approval. A contract alternation agreement should be signed with Party B within 30 days since the approval.

Party B is entitled to cancel the contract unilaterally if Party A makes any unauthorized changes to the housing's construction design.

Translation for Page 15 of 76

Ninth, Party A should not make unauthorized changes to the district layout (see Appendix 6) agreed in the contract. Necessary changes should have Party B's written agreement.

If Party A changes the district's layout without Party B's agreement, Party B is entitled to require Party A to restore the district. If restoration is impossible, Party A should pay for 3.00% of the total housing price as penalty due to breach of contract.

Tenth, the turnover of housing should meet conditions listed in Plan 3:

Plan 1, preliminary real estate registration with property ownership certificate (the big one) for newly built commercial housing; Party A has canceled the housing's mortgage and paid for the property maintenance fund accordingly.

Plan 2, having Housing Turn-over Permission; Party A has canceled the housing's mortgage and paid for the property maintenance fund accordingly. Party A promises to apply for preliminary real estate registration and get the property ownership certificate (the big one) before the date _____. If the property ownership certificate (the big one) is not available by that day, Party B is entitled to cancel the contract unilaterally.

Plan 3, Party A has passed the inspection and got the Completion Inspection Report for Construction Project; Party A has canceled the housing's mortgage and paid for the property maintenance fund accordingly. Party A promises to apply for preliminary real estate registration and get the property ownership certificate (the big one) before the date May 31st 2007. If the property ownership certificate (the big one) is not available by that day, Party B is entitled to cancel the contract unilaterally.

Eleventh, Party A has agreed to turn over the housing to Party B on January 31st 2007 with the exception of force majeure.

Translation for Page 16 of 76

Twelfth, if Party A fails to turn over the housing to Party B within the agreed period, Party A should pay a penalty due to breach of contract by 4.00/10,000 of the unpaid amount for each day. The penalty is calculated from the day after the agreed payment date to the date of actual payment. Once the delay exceeds 60 days, Party A has the right to call Party B to account according to Plan 1:

Party A should inform Party B in written manner when canceling the contract.

Plan 2,

Thirteenth, once the housing meets turn over conditions stipulated in entry 10, Party A should inform Party B in written notice to deal with the turn over procedures 10 days before the date of turn over. Party B should check the housing with Party A within 15 days since the notice. Party B's signing of the owner contract marks the housing turn over.

During the check and turn over, Party A should show certificate documents for housing turn over as stipulated in entry 10 of the contract. Since the housing is for office use, Party A should provide Newly Built Commercial Housing Quality Guarantee and Newly Built Commercial Housing Usage Instruction to Party B. Meanwhile, Party A should provide relevant materials of actual measurement upon Party B's request.

If Party A fails to present or provide the aforementioned material, Party B is entitled to refuse accepting the housing. The responsibility of delayed turn over thus aroused should be borne by Party A.

Fourteenth, within 30 days since Party A has applied for the preliminary registration of newly built commercial housing and got the real estate property ownership certificate (the big one), Party A and Party B should sign the Housing Turn Over Letter as stipulated in this contract and the Housing Turn Over Letter will be a necessary document for the housing turn over.

Within 60 days of Party A and Party B signing the Housing Turn over Letter, the two parties should apply to Pudong New District Real Estate Trading Center for pricing report, turn over procedures and the property ownership certificate (the small one).

Translation for Page 17 of 76

Fifteenth, the housing's risks and responsibilities are transferred from Party A to Party B since the date of housing turn over. If Party B fails to check and accept the housing on time, Party B should send a written letter. If Party B fails to check and accept the housing by the date said in the letter, the housing's risks and responsibilities will be transferred to Party B since the day after the turn over date noted on the letter.

Sixteenth, Party A promises that the housing has no mortgage set by Party A by the time of turn over to Party B. Neither are there any other ownership disputes or financial disputes. If situations not matching Party A's guarantee arise after turn over, Party A takes full responsibility.

Seventeenth, the housing turned over by Party A has passed inspections. If the housing's decoration and facility standards fail to meet the standards agreed in Contract Appendix 3, Party B is entitled to require Party A to pay for 2.00 times the difference in price between actual and agreed decoration and facility. If the main body structure fails to meet standards agreed in Contract Appendix 3, Party B is entitled to cancel the contract unilaterally.

The two parties discuss and agree to assign an experienced construction project quality inspection institution in the city to resolve the disputes according to the written inspection suggestions provided by the institution.

Eighteenth, upon the housing's turn over, if Party B considers the main body structure not meeting the contract's standards, Party may assign an experienced construction project quality inspection institution in the city to measure the housing. After inspection, if the main body structure is confirmed to be not meeting standards, Party B is entitled to cancel the contract unilaterally.

Nineteenth, when Party B cancels the contract unilaterally according to the contract entries, Party B should inform Party A in written manner. Party A should return full sum of Party B's ready-paid payment (including interest, interest calculated according to the same time deposit interest rate issued by People's Bank of China) to Party B within 10 days since the written notice. Party A should bear the compensation responsibility. The compensation will be 3.00% of total housing price which should be paid when the ready-paid housing payment is returned to Party B.

The ready-paid housing payment mentioned in the preceding entries and in the current contract includes Party B's direct payment and loan payment.

Twentieth, in accordance with the contract's agreements, if either side of Party A or Party B decide to cancel the contract, the penalty paid due to breach of contract by either party before either side cancel the contract should be deducted from the compensation.

Twenty-first, if either side disagrees with the other party's unilateral cancel of contract, the disagreeing party should confirm the cancel with the dispute resolving institution selected in accordance with entry thirty-three within 90 days since the other party's written announcement of cancel.

Twenty-second, if there is project quality problems with the housing turned over by Party A, Party B is entitled to require free restoration by Party A within the maintenance period, and Party A should pay 2.00 times the restoring fee for compensation.

The two parties agree to assign an experienced construction project quality inspection institution in the city to dissolve the other quality disputes according to the written inspection suggestions provided by the institution.

Twenty-third, since the turn over of the housing, Party A should be responsible for the housing's maintenance. The maintenance scope and maintenance period should be decided by the two parties according to the Construction Project Quality Management Treaty and Shanghai Real Estate Transfer Methods issued by the State Council as stipulated in the Contract Appendix 5.

Twenty-fourth, Party A has employed Shanghai Spreadtrum Hotel Management Co.,

Ltd. to take charge of the housing's preliminary property management and has signed the Preliminary Property Management Service Contract with the company (see Appendix 5). Since the housing is planned for office use, Party A and Party B have signed the Usage Convention for Building #1 of Spreadtrum Center (see Appendix 5).

Twenty-fifth, the housing purchased by Party B and its corresponding land-use right are inseparable. Since the turn over of the housing's property ownership rights, the rights, obligations and responsibilities stipulated in the Land-Use Rights Transfer Contract signed by Party A and Shanghai Real Estate Land Resource Bureau have been transferred to Party B.

Twenty-sixth, the rights and benefits (housing options) enjoyed by Party B under the contract may be transferred or mortgaged legally by Party B. Party A should coordinate when Party B is fulfilling the aforementioned rights.

Twenty-seventh, any documents, replies and other relevant contracts sent by one party to the other party according to the contract should be sent in written format by registered post or direct delivery to the address as listed in the contract or to the changed address as informed by the other party via the way notified under this entry. Materials sent by registered post will be considered to reach the other party 3 days after delivery (according to the postmark date). Materials sent by direct delivery will be considered to reach the other party once it's signed by the other party.

Twenty-eighth, the taxation and other charges occur during the housing trading should be paid respectively by Party A and Party B according to relevant regulations.

Twenty-ninth, the supplementary treaties, appendix and supplementary agreements are inseparable parts of the contract. In case of difference between the supplementary treaties and agreements and the contract content, the supplementary treaties and agreements should be referred to.

Other matters uncovered in the contract and changes aroused during the fulfillment of the contract should be decided by the two parties with Alternation Agreement.

Thirtieth, Party A and Party B should be clear about each other's rights and obligations when signing the contract and should be willing to fulfill the contract stringently. If either party breaches the contract, the other party is entitled to require compensation according to the contract.

Thirty-first, the contract takes effect since it is signed by the two parties/___/___ and notarized by the notary office. The two parties have agreed that Party A will be responsible to apply to the real estate registering authority for the contract's registration procedures within 15 days since the contract takes effect. If the responsible party fails to register on time and causes losses to the other party, it should bear the compensation responsibility.

Translation for Page 20 of 76

Thirty-second, once the contract is registered, if the contract is agreed to be canceled, the two parties should submit the written document of contract cancelling to the Pudong New District real estate registering authority for registration within 30 days since the canceling.

If Party A or Party B cancels the contract unilaterally in accordance with relevant entries in the contract, Party A or Party B should submit the other party's written delivery receipt of the cancel agreement to the real estate registering authority to register the cancelling of the contract.

Thirty-third, in case of disputes between Party A and Party B during the fulfillment of the contract, the two parties should negotiate the solution. If negotiations fail to solve the disputes, the two parties should adopt plan 1 from below to solve the dispute: (cross the option not chosen)

Plan 1, filing a case to the China Economic and Trade Arbitration Committee;

Plan 2, filing a lawsuit to the People's Court in accordance with the laws.

Thirty-fourth, the contract has one original version and _ copies, all with equal validity. Party A and Party B have 1 copy respectively. _____, _____, and _____ have 1 copy respectively.

2. Main accounting policies adopted

- (1) Accounting system: the Company adopts Enterprise Accounting System.
- (2) Accounting period: from January 1st to December 31st
- (3) Accounting principle and pricing basis: accrual basis for accounting and historical cost as pricing basis.

(4) Accounting unit: RMB

(5) Foreign currency accounting

Foreign currencies are accounted by the RMB bench exchange rate as announced at the beginning of the month by the People's Bank of China. By the end of the month, the foreign currency balance of various foreign currencies accounts will be adjusted according to the RMB benchmark exchange rate adjustment. The difference caused by adjustment will be calculated into this month's profit and losses

(6) Inventory accounting method: inventory is calculated according to its actual cost upon acquirement; first-in first-out calculation for delivered inventory; all-at-once amortization for low value consumable products.

(7) Fix assets standards, calculation method, category, depreciation method and remaining value ratio:

1. Fix assets standards: houses, buildings, machines, facilitates, transportation equipments and other facilities, equipments and tools possessed for the use of product production, labor service supply, rental or business management with over one year of usage lifetime and over 2,000 RMB worth of unit value.

2. Fix assets are calculated according to actual cost.

3. Depreciation scope: except for facilities fully depreciated but still in use and lands calculated respectively, all fix assets are to be depreciated.

4. Depreciation of fix assets is calculated by average lifetime according to category, usage lifetime and a 3% predicted remaining value ratio.

(8) Income confirmation principle: when products are delivered to the customers and the payment has been paid or the payment receipt has been acquired, the income is fulfilled.

(9) Taxation:

Taxation	Tax Ratio	Tax Calculation Basis
Value-added tax	17%	Calculated and paid according to sales income
Income tax	25%	Calculated and paid according to total profit
(the year 2008 is a tax-free period)
Business tax	5%	Calculated and paid according to total service income
